

Press Release

[Stetron Introduces Midsize Telematics Speaker]

Buffalo, NY, Wednesday November 29, 2017 : Stetron is pleased to announce the release of a new Midsize Telematics Speaker. Low profile, low THD and a high output SPL of 82dB are the key features of this speaker.

With a rated power of 2W, this speaker is ideal for telematics however it can also be applied to applications including smart home monitoring, PND's and IoT.

To learn more about this midsize telematics speaker, please visit <https://www.stetron.com/products/d0040004nc122ar/> or contact stetron.contacts@Stetron.com.

Flat Panel Monitor Speaker
Part # D0040004NC122AR

Stetron

Stetron is a premier supplier of custom audio solutions to fortune 500 companies worldwide. Established in 1965, Stetron has a demonstrated expertise in optimizing engineered components including microphones (ECMs), dynamic receivers and loudspeakers. Stetron's Asian based manufacturing coupled with North American engineering, delivers technically advanced products at competitive prices.

Stetron strives to provide the highest level of customer and technical support in the industry. They work with customers to fully understand their audio requirements and help them design solutions that meet their requirements. Stetron maintains a full anechoic chamber and uses sophisticated software to measure a number of parameters including: THD, Life and load testing, Thiele Small Parameters, Impedance and Environmental. Stetron provides a strong technical experience and data you can trust.

Stetron maintains a global presence with offices in Toronto, Canada; New York, United States; Taipei, Taiwan; Ningbo and Foshan, China.

Learn more about Stetron

"Like" us on Facebook

<https://www.facebook.com/StetronInternational/>

"Follow" us on LinkedIn

<https://www.linkedin.com/company-beta/16208516/>

For Immediate Release